Congratulations

to all our new Tutors,
who finished our Fall Tutor Training Workshop and our Teachers Workshop.
Do you know how amazing you are?
You gave your time to learn something new, to help someone you've never met.
We think you're pretty great!

ANNUAL MEETING – LCWC Board President Milt Creager presenting a plaque to our recently retired Administrator, Bill Price.

ANNUAL MEETING – September 24, 2010
Jean & Bill Price, Milt Creager, Board members Diane Sanford and Lois Dreisbach.

We're in need of Tutor Trainers and Board Members.

If you've taken our 2-day Tutor Training Workshop, then you've met our hard-working dedicated Trainers. We had such an overwhelming response to our last Workshop that we have a waiting list of prospective Tutors, so now we need more Trainers.

We also need Board Members since some of our members have resigned due to moving out of state, family obligations, and illness. We meet the 3rd Monday of each month at 6:30pm in Memorial Hall at Trinity Lutheran Church.

If you'd like more info on either of these opportunities, please contact Milt or Barb Creager at 301-797-3293 or jbcrag@myactv.net.

Since the Library is temporarily closed...

...several tutors have asked for other location suggestions -- you can try other library branches, the two new temp library locations (18739 North Point Dr and 59 W Washington St), HCC, the Robinwood Medical atrium and tables/chairs throughout the building, Borders, the mall/outlet Food Courts, various delis/fast food restaurants, Trinity Lutheran Church, other local churches and our Literacy Council office.

A Little Trivia...

What Pulitzer Prize-winning book was voted
“the best novel of the 20th century”
by librarians across the U.S.?
(The answer is on page 3)

Tutor & Student Stats

We have 54 pairs of Tutors and Students working together.

A big Thank You to every one of you!
We appreciate you!

Condolences

Barb Creager, our Board VP and Tutor Trainer, on the recent passing of her mother, Marjory Nagle; and Brenda Vanover, our Office Administrator, on the death of her grandmother, Leah Cline.
